Organic Arts Ltd. is a down-to-earth collaboration of fine artists and educators using the performing arts to teach about music, storytelling, history, heritage, social justice, and the environment..

Organic Arts serves as a clearinghouse that connects artists with festivals, performing arts centers, schools, libraries, senior groups, parks, nature centers, and community event planners to serve audiences with professional arts experiences.

David HB Drake ~ Heritage Music of the Heartland

"Parents' Choice" and WAMI "Family Music Artist of the Year" award winner

David HB Drake has toured the Midwest for over 35 years presenting educational, entertaining programs for all ages. David's concerts showcase a variety of instruments including guitar, handmade banjo, dulcimer, concertina, and Native American courting flute. David's multimedia programs of Wisconsin and Illinois history (Wiscon-Sing and Heartland), immigration (Gather by the Waters) and children's books (The Illustrated Song) are accompanied by slides that bring the music to life and provide sing-along words. David's sing-along shows for little kids (Kidstuff), environmental program (What a Wonderful World) and evening community concert (Potluck) present a patchwork quilt of good old American music.

Michael Drake- No Tan Lines Band, Sazzunk Jazz Lines Band

Michael is internationally recognized and makes it all look so easy. While performing in a small venue or in concert with one of his larger bands - 13-piece horn section, steel drums, percussionists and vocalists, it’s fascinating to see Michael’s uncanny ability to spontaneously interact with the audience. It’s truly a unique and remarkable experience. His imaginative writing, playing and entertainment style is natural and inclusive. You feel as though you were vacationing somewhere on a Caribbean island. Limbo contests, conga lines, sing-alongs, shakers for the audience.
